

Please visit xm.com for more information.

PHP Back-End Developers

Reference Number: PHP1017

The main responsibilities of the position include:

- Gathering requirements, designing and implementing new features/projects
- Maintaining and refactoring existing web applications such as the Company's payment gateway
- Resolving support tickets for IT related issues
- Researching and integrating new web technologies
- Collaborating with other departments or IT staff members

Main requirements:

- BSc/MSc in Information Technology/Computer Science, or any other relevant degree
- 2-3 years' experience in a similar position
- Very good knowledge of PHP 5.5+
- Very good understanding of object-oriented programming principles
- Very good working knowledge of relational databases like MySQL
- Experience with consuming 3rd party web services
- Problem solving and analytical thinking skills
- Outstanding team working skills

The following will be considered an advantage:

- Experience with any PHP frameworks like Symfony, Laravel, CakePHP
- Experience in creating composer packages, using version control systems like Git and writing tests with PHPUnit
- Working knowledge of database query optimisation
- Experience in the development of RESTful APIs
- Experience in using RabbitMQ with PHP

Enjoy:

- Continuous personal development and international training opportunities
- Attractive remuneration package plus performance related bonus
- Private health insurance
- Private pension insurance
- Flexible working arrangements

Type of employment: Full time

Location: Limassol, Cyprus

All applications will be treated with strict confidentiality!

Apply Now

This vacancy was retrieved from bytefreaks.net